

THE OBEDIENT CHRISTIAN

At the moment you placed your faith in Jesus Christ as your Savior, a life of obedience to God became a real possibility. The Holy Spirit set you free from the bondage of sin and death (Romans 8:2). He enables you to live a Christlike life.

“It is not just that we should strive to live like Jesus, but that Jesus by his Spirit should come and live in us. To have him as our example is not enough; we need him as our Savior. It is thus through his atoning death, that the penalty of our sins may be forgiven; whereas it is through his indwelling Spirit that the power of our sins may be broken.”

JOHN R. W. STOTT¹

As you learn more about the obedient Christian in action, remember that the Holy Spirit will help you obey.

OBEDIENCE TO GOD

How do you know what God desires for your life? The Bible is God's revelation of truth, and obedience to God's Word is obedience to God himself.

THE PRACTICE OF OBEDIENT LIVING

The obedient Christian still faces daily struggles with temptation. How can we practice obedience and gain victory over sin? Biblical principles and examples provide the answer.

13. Discover the source and causes of temptation in the following verses:

How does sin differ from temptation? _____

- a. Are the temptations you face different and perhaps more difficult than those faced by others?

- b. What limit does God place on temptation?

- c. What is God sure to provide when you are tempted?

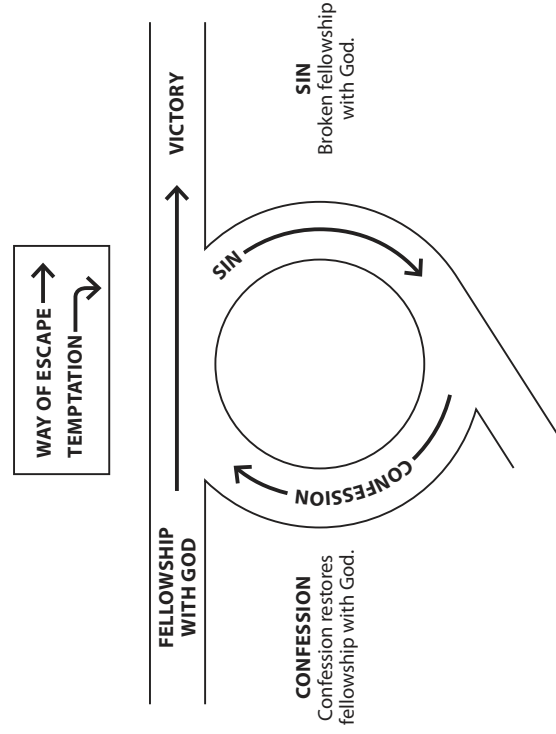

This verse is a promise to claim. If you memorize and review it, it will remind you to look for the way out when you are tempted.
 God offers us victory and deliverance, but men sin because they often neglect the provision. Known but unconfessed sin grieves God. Although sin does not alter God's love, it does cause a break in fellowship with him.

- 17. In 1 John 1:9 we are told to (check the correct answer):

 ___ try to do something to make up for sin.
 ___ confess sin to God.
 ___ try to forget about sin.

Proverbs 4:13-15

20. What two steps indicated in James 4:7 will help you walk in victory?

TO SUBMIT TO GOD you must yield your will to God's will.
TO RESIST THE DEVIL you must use God's provision for victory.

21. These questions about sin and temptation probably remind you of the daily conflict you experience.

a. Review question 8. What is the root problem in the area you recorded?

b. How does the temptation to disobey God in this area begin to show itself?

c. What steps can you take to avoid these beginnings?

“Live by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the sinful nature.”

GALATIANS 5:16

Remember These Points

- Your obedience to God is based on the fact that he is your Creator. You obey him because of who he is.
- God reveals his standards through the Scriptures.
- To the extent that you appropriate God's provision for victory, you can experience a life of obedience.
- You are not immune, however, from temptation and sin. Sin does not negate God's love for you, but it does break your fellowship with him. Confession restores that fellowship.
