

CHAPTER THREE

CONVERSING WITH GOD

Communication is essential for any growing relationship, including our relationship with God. Prayer is our means of communicating with him.

When you pray, the Holy Spirit helps you know what to say and how to say it (Romans 8:26-27).

“The Spirit links himself with us in our praying and pours his supplications into our own. We may master the technique of prayer and understand its philosophy; we may have unlimited confidence in the veracity and validity of the promises concerning prayer. We may plead them earnestly. But if we ignore the part played by the Holy Spirit, we have failed to use the master key.”

Even when conditions are met, it sometimes appears as if God is not answering prayer. But remember that “No” and “Wait” are as much of an answer as “Yes.”

8. Consider Jesus' pattern for prayer in Matthew 6:9-13.

a. How does the prayer begin? Why is this important?

11. What does the Lord desire you to pray for? Matthew 9:37-38

Why do you feel this is important?

- Your family
- Your non-Christian friends and acquaintances
- Your pastor and church
- Missionaries and Christian workers you know
- Those who oppose you
- Governmental authorities
- Your personal needs

_____	_____

b. Which one did Jesus commend and why?

c. Like Martha, you may be easily distracted by many things. What activities might distract you from meeting with God?

d. What can you do to overcome these distractions?

16. From what you have already learned in DESIGN FOR DISCIPLESHIP, record several reasons why you need to spend daily time with God—meditating on his Word and conversing with him in prayer.

Remember These Points

- God has provided prayer as the means of communicating directly with him, through Jesus Christ.
- Prayer releases us from fear and worry.
- The Scriptures provide numerous patterns and examples for our prayer.
- God desires your fellowship, and you need to grow in your relationship with him. So regular times alone with God for the purpose of fellowship are vitally necessary.
